argument dealt solely with the constitutional phases of the question, and was an incisive exposition of the whole matter.

The substitute was then put upon its passage and was rejected by a decisive vote. The report of the judiciary com-mittee was then adopted.

More Infantry and Less Cavalry

This the Opinion of Gen. Miles, Who Criticises Mounted Soldiers of Uncle Sam

T. LOUIS, May 17.-Gen. Nelson A. Miles, who is here attending the good roads convention, today expressed the belief that the Russo-Japanese war will eventually involve other nations. "I believe that the war will be a long and desperate one," said

Incidentally he criticised the American cavalry by remarking that 50 per cent of our soldiers are mounted, while in other countries the percentage is about 7 to 10 per cent. We should have more infantry and less cavairy.

"In the next great war," said Gen.
Miles, "I believe the automobile will to a large extent supplant the horse. There are now 100,000 automobiles in the United States and the number is increasing rapidly. Their speed is becom-ing phenomenal. Automobiles can be used on bad roads as well as horses."

Webster Davis Has Two Men Arrested in New York Who Threat-

EW YORK, May 17.-Gen. Samuel Pearson of Scranton, Pa., who served under Gen. Louis Botha in the Boer war, and Cornellus W. Vanderhoodt foreign correspondent of Baltimore and Washington, D. C., were arrested in this city today on the complaint of Webster Davis, who was assistant Secretary of State under President McKinley, and were held in $1000 ball each by Magistrate Cor-held in $1000 bail each by Magistrate Cornell, charged with "suspicion of blackmail."

Mr. Davis claimed to have received letters from Gen. Pearson and also a letter, unsigned, threatening his life unless $30,000 were forthcoming. The two letters written by Gen. Pearson were simply requests for an audience. The arrests were made in Mr. Davis's apartments, where the two prisoners had come by appointment, the police having been previously notified. Mr. Davis says that on their arrival he asked the men what they wished to see him about, and they told him they were seeking an accounting of certain money belonging to the Boer Government. money belonging to the Boer Government.

short affiditivit to give the police an opportunity to investigate.

When seen in the Jefferson Market prison Gen. Pearson said: "I understood that the Boer Government entrusted to Webster Davis about f49,000 in gold bullion. I have a war claim against the Eper Government for $55,600 and when I learned Mr. Davis knew something about the gold, I determined to ask for an accounting. If he has the money I want to know about I did send Mr. Davis a note or two simply asking for a meeting with him. In the second letter I think I demanded an accounting of the $40,000 in gold bullion, threatening legal steps if such an accounting was not forthcoming."

Stand-Patters Control in Iowa

Republican State Convention in the Hawkeye State Promises to Be Largest in Its History.

ES MOINES, Ia., May 17.-With Secretary Shaw, Senators Allison and Dolliver and every member of the lower house in Congress in the city to attend the State Repubican convention which meets tomorrow the indications point to one of the largest gathering of its kind in the hisfory of the State. Hon. John N. Irwin of Keokuk will be temporary chairman. Of the 1300 delegates, over 1000 are conceded to be with the stand-patters, and the only discussion before the delegates at the present time is the word-ing of the resolution upon the tarim question. It is conceded that the plank will be worded just as the stand-pat-

Cartelyou Is

Secretary for Chairman Republican National Committee

ASHINGTON, May 17 .- At the conclusion of the Cabinet meeting to-Secretary Cortelyou and Postmaster-General Payne continued for a considerable time in consultation with the President. The conference related to political matters. No concestment now is made of the practical selection of Secretary Cortelyou to be chairman of the Republican National committee. No official announcement of the selection has been made and it is quite likely at present that none will be made until the National committee shall have taken formal action by electing Mr. Cortelyou as chairman. The matter is recognized, however, as being quite as well settled now as it can be in advance of the committee's action. At the conclusion of the conference neither Mr. Cortelyou nor Mr. Payne cared to discuss its details for publication.

It is learned that the principal head-quarters of the Republican party during the approaching campaign will be in New York city. Headquarters will be maintained in Chicago. In view of plans tentatively mapped out it will be really difficult to distinguish between the two headquarters.

It is not unlikely that a sub-chairman will be in charge of the headquarters at each city, and that Chairman Cortelyou will spend a part of his time at each place. He will maintain his home in this city

No determination as to the secretary-ship of the new committee has been reached. The names of Elm-r C. Dover, secretary of the present committee; L. A. Coolidge, president of the Gridiron club of this city, and Harry S. New of Indianapolis, a member of the national committee, among others, have been suggested.

Lying in Coffin Child Revives

Six-Year-Old Girl Apparently Dead, Ready for Burial, Comes

USTER, S. D., May 17 .- "I do not believe that the child is dead. I see color in the child's face," declared ome of City Marshal C. Fearing of this place to attend the funeral of his little daughter, aged 6. The statement was made to a relative of the family, privately. There was a hurried consultation and others whose attention was called to the appearance of the little one in her coffin agreed that she did not look like coffin agreed that she did not look like a corpse.

Thirty-six hours before the child, after being ill several days with scarlet fever, had had a sudden relapse and passed into unconsciousness. All signs of life disappeared and she was so pronounced dead by doctor and nurse. She had been prepared for burlal, and none had suspected she was still living. The little body was not so rigid as usual in death, but nothing was thought of this, which was explained by the fact that children do not show so decided a rigor mortis as older people.

show so decided a rigor mortis as older people.

As a result of the insistence of the doubting friends the child was taken from the casket and efforts at reviving it were undertaken. The eyes, when the lids were turned back, did not show the usual signs of death. More efforts under direction of a physician who was called developed unmistakable signs of life, and, after a very slight heart action had been restored, signs of breathing were detected. Inside of an hour the child feebly opened her eyes. She was still very weak, but continued effort brought her back to complete consciousness. The funeral party was sent home, the undertaker notified the hearse would not be needed and the little girl in a few hours seemed much stronger than before she went into the trance. The symptoms of scarlet fever had almost disappeared. It is now believed that she will recover.

Cracked His Rib While Hugging Him

Young Man Sues Athletic Girl for Damages Because She Squeezed Him Too Tight.

UFFALO, May 17.-Walter Lorraine of Riga, Monroe county brought an action for $2000 damages against Miss Marle du Calm of Niagara Falls, it being alleged by Lorraine that Miss du Calm hugged him so tightly as to break one of his ribs. Lorraine was visiting friends in Ottawa, Ont., last winter. While there he met Miss du Calm. The ice carnival was at its height in Quebec, and the couple made up their minds to visit it and gut their minds to visit it and get photographs, both being ama-teur photographers.

and get photographs, both being amateur photographers.

During the development of the negatives one in particular appealed to the enthusiastic nature of Miss du Calm. As she saw the image of the gay scenes which they had witnessed she was completely carried away. With a gurgling, "Oh, Walter, doesn't anything like that make you love nature! I'm just going to give you a big hug!" She hurled herself at the plaintiff.

As her arms encircled him, Lorraine's complaint alleges, there was a cracking sound and Lorraine uttered a cry of pain. A physician was summoned. Lorraine had sustained a fracture of one of his ribs on the right side.

In her defense Miss du Calm sets up that she is of an affectionate and clinging nature and that fact was well known to the plaintiff, who, she says, up to the time of the accident, had shown no disinclination to submit to her caresses. Miss du Calm's answer also alleges the hugging was involuntary and due to the effect of the red rays of light, resulting from the use of a ruby lamp, that it is a recognized scientific fact that the red rays are the most strenuous and likely to provoke scientific fact that the red rays are the most strenuous and likely to provoke excitability in one of an ardent temperament, and their effect upon the de-fendant is and was at the time known to Lorraine.
